J. R. McCLANNEY KILLED AT TUNNEL SPRINGS SUNDAY MAY LEAD TO DISCOVERY OF AN IMPORTANT CLUE

WAS SHOT NINE TIMES, WHILE ENGAGED IN A FIGHT WITH THE SMITH BROTHERS OF THAT PLACE—BODY TAKEN TO McDAVID YESTERDAY.

J. R. McClanney, residing about two miles west of McDavid, was killed Sunday night at a small place called Tunnel Springs, on the Southern Alabama Railway, and the body was brought to McDavid yesterday afternoon, where the internment will occur to-day.

McClanney and two brothers, named Smith, engaged in a fight Sunday night at Tunnel Springs, and it is stated by parties who passed through that place yesterday that McClanney fired the first shot. Immediately thereafter was a fusillade, and McClanney all firing at the same time.

Nine bullets, it is reported, entered the body of the McDavid man, while one of the Smith boys was severely wounded that he is not expected to survive.

The affair occurred at a dance or entertainment of some kind Sunday night, the deceased man and the two Smith boys becoming involved in a quarrel over some trifling matter, and harsh terms were applied. McClanney drew his revolver and fired at one of them. This led the two brothers to use their revolvers, and nearly every shot took effect.

Quite a large number of persons were at the depot at McDavid yesterday afternoon to meet the train which brought in the remains.

McClanney, it is claimed, shot a man in Escambia county about three years ago, but was later exonerated at the trial.

Where Happiness is Found.

Don't look for true happiness in the mansions of the very rich, where high-priced physicians are called in to doctor every ailment. But seek it and find it, too, in the comfortable homes of the middle-classes and so-called poor, where Green's August Flower is always used to keep the family healthy—to cure all stomach troubles, whether indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, loss of appetite, bilious attacks or torpid liver. Trial bottle August Flower, 25c. Big bottle, 75c. At all druggists.

BOAT AND FISHING TACKLE WAS SAVED.

The boat and fishing tackle of Bernie Tondar, who, with a member of his crew, suffered a terrible experience about a week since, by being capsized, has been recovered, and although damaged to some extent, will be of service after some repairs.

The vessel and seine were brought to the city yesterday by A. B. Duncan, who had learned of the accident to the fishing boat, and who later found the vessel and brought her to the city. Mr. Tondar and one member of the crew were capsized in the sound last week, and in order to save themselves remained on the upturned boat for a number of hours, finally being rescued by the steamer Captain Fritz. Mr. Tondar has been confined to his bed since the time that he arrived in the city.

HONORED BY MILLIONS.

The total admissions to the World's Fair were 19,000,000; of this number approximately 3,000,000 were officers, exhibitors, concessionaires and employees; 6,000,000 were residents of St. Louis and 10,000,000 non-residents. Estimating that each non-resident visited the fair at least four times, it would appear that 2,500,000 people came to St. Louis in the seven months and during this same period more than 1,250,000 people passed through the Anheuser-Busch plant. Never before has an establishment been honored by so many visitors, and it is safe to say that at least one-half of the people who came to St. Louis availed themselves of the opportunity to inspect the greatest plant of the kind in the world.

1904 was the banner year in the history of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing Association, its sales being 1,365,711 barrels of beer, showing an increase of 163,849 barrels. The latter as an annual record would exceed that of the majority of the larger breweries of this country. This phenomenal increase is the more remarkable, because the past year, owing to the long winter and abnormally cool summer, was a decidedly off year for the beer business. The total gain of the beer output for the United States for 1904 was about 900,000 barrels, thus proving Anheuser-Busch's increase of 163,849 barrels to be about 20% of that of all breweries combined. Such an exceptionally good showing can only be attributed to the excellence of their product and the courteous treatment of their patrons.

NEW CARS FOR STREET RAILWAY

TWO VESTIBULED ONES ARRIVED YESTERDAY, AND A COACH IS EXPECTED SOON.

Two new cars for the street railway company reached the city yesterday from New York, and as soon as possible will be placed in service on some of the lines. Both of the cars are vestibuled ones, inasmuch as they contain glass fronts, and will, as a consequence, be gladly welcomed by the motormen, who are compelled to face the cold winds in the early morning hours and late at night.

Both of the cars are neatly arranged and will be very useful during the winter season, and will obviate the necessity of using the open cars during cold weather.

The company is also expecting at an early date a large closed car for the dummy line, which will be attached to the regular train running between Pensacola and Fort Barrancas. This car is one similar to that now being used on the line. Since the navy yard has begun to employ an extra large number of men the company has been unable to furnish seating room in closed cars for the passengers, and many persons were compelled to make the long ride in an open car.

This car is expected to reach here before the expiration of the week, and will be placed in service at once.

Do Not Suppress a Cough.

When you have a cough do not try to suppress it, but remove the cause. The cough is only a symptom of some disease, and the disease is what you should cure, then the cough will stop of itself. The most common cause of coughing is a cold. Anodynes will promptly suppress the cough, and preparations containing chloroform, opium, etc., are used for that purpose, but they do not cure the cold. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy on the other hand does not suppress the cough, but relieves it by removing from the throat and lungs the mucus which obstructs the breathing and allaying the irritation and tickling in the throat. It also opens the secretions and effectually and permanently cures the cold as well as the cough. For sale by all druggists.

CUT THE THROAT OF HER HUSBAND

BERTHA BARNES USED A KNIFE ON HER HUSBAND LAST NIGHT ON ZARRAGOSSA STREET.

Bertha Barnes, colored, cut and seriously wounded her husband, Frank Barnes, early last night, while in an alley on Zarragossa street, but it is not thought that the wounds are dangerous. The knife entered near the left ear and a gash several inches in length was inflicted.

The woman was arrested by the police and admitted that she had done the cutting. She stated to the officers that she and her husband were in an alley in the rear of one of the saloons and became involved in a quarrel. She claimed that he drew a knife and would have cut her throat, but she turned the tables upon him, and wrenching the knife from his grasp, cut him on the neck.

Blood stains covered the ground in the immediate vicinity, but the knife used could not be found.

The woman was not allowed bond at the police station, where she was sent to be held until further developments in the case.

PARTIES ENTERED GULF CITY CLUB ROOM SATURDAY NIGHT, BUT FAILED TO FIND ANY MONEY—HAND WAS EVIDENTLY BADLY CUT IN BREAKING THROUGH GLASS DOORS.

A discovery, which may lead to important clues in the Travis Johnson murder case, was made yesterday morning, when Officer Roach found in an alleyway on Government street, between Palafox and Baylen streets, a coat, which had been stolen from the Gulf City Club, and which is owned by Pete McCloskey.

The officers also discovered that the party who had committed the robbery had used the coat for the purpose of stopping the flow of blood which followed a cut on the hand or arm. The glass in the front door, leading into the rooms had been broken in order to gain access to the place, and the burglar in doing this had evidently inflicted a severe wound upon himself, as the rooms showed blood, and where he had grasped chairs bloody finger prints were found. The door knobs, which had been grasped by the party, also showed blood stains, and a window, which had been raised, was in a like condition, while prints of the fingers were visible upon the casing of the window.

The coat had been left lying upon a table, and it is evident that in order to stop the flow of blood that the burglar grasped it and wrapped it about his hand.

It is thought that the party breaking into the place intended to rob McCloskey, who formerly occupied a room there, but not being able to find him started away, and was frightened by some party or parties, for instead of returning by the stairway he ran out on the front gallery and slid down one of the posts on Government street. Blood stains also show on the post and sidewalk, and the coat was evidently thrown into the alley by the party as soon as he reached the ground in safety.

The date of the robbery is not known, as no one has been in the rooms for some days.

The impression is that could the party who entered the place be discovered and his arrest accomplished, a good clue would be obtained to the party who murdered Travis Johnson some time ago.

TRAINING SHIP HARTFORD WILL BE DOCKED TO-DAY

You Never Know the Moment When This Information May Prove of Infinite Value.

It is worth considerable to any citizen of Pensacola to know how to be cured of painful, annoying and itching piles. Know then that Doan's Ointment is a positive remedy for all itching of the skin, for piles, eczema, etc. One application relieves and soothes. Read this testimony of its merit:

Mrs. U. Mertins, living at West Independence street, says: "I used Doan's Ointment, which I procured at Sidney Kahn's drug store, No. 9 South Palafox street, for eczema which had bothered me for more than ten years. It was worse during the heated parts of the year than any other time, and I suffered terribly. I used one ointment and saw after the other, but with little success, and treated with different doctors but without obtaining marked benefit. When one fifty-cent box of Doan's Ointment cured me it is no more than natural that I should be pleased to let others know of the wonderful merit of this preparation. It is a remedy which all sufferers from itching skin disease can rely upon with the utmost confidence."

OLDEST OF ALL LAND OFFICES

THAT AT HUNTSVILLE, ALA., WAS ESTABLISHED NINETY-FOUR YEARS AGO.

Huntsville, Ala., Jan. 9.—The United States land office in this city, which has been ordered discontinued on February 28, and moved to Montgomery, is the oldest active land office in the United States. It was established in 1810, and is, consequently, 94 years older than the state itself. Its territory includes the old Lebanon, Cedar Bluff and Center land divisions, these offices having been discontinued more than a quarter of a century ago. Since the establishment of this office 94 years ago, there have been 28,398 homestead entries approximating 3,000,000 acres, besides many thousands of cash purchases of Cherokee Indian school lands. It is of curious interest at this time that the first record in Madison county, is a deed to the Huntsville spring and a thousand acres of land upon which the city of Huntsville now stands, from a patentee of the United States government to a purchaser who paid the sum of $1,000 for the property. In the past eight years 3,709 persons have entered approximately 247,000 acres of government lands in this district, leaving about 75,000 acres yet to be entered. The revised statutes provide that when the government lands in a land office district amount to less than 100,000 acres, the office shall be discontinued, hence the order discontinuing this office. There now remain in the entire state of Alabama only about 175,000 acres of government lands, 100,000 acres of which are in the Montgomery division.

Each person in the audience had been supplied with a banner bearing the word "Welcome," and Miss Booth's entrance upon the stage was the signal for a spectacular and prolonged demonstration.

FLEET ASSEMBLED AT HAMPTON ROADS

PREPARATORY TO DEPARTURE FOR SOUTHERN WATERS FOR ANNUAL MANEUVERS.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 9.—All the warships of the North Atlantic fleet, including the battleship squadron, the coast defense squadron and the Caribbean squadron that will be inspected and reviewed by Admiral Dewey and Secretary Morton, with one or two exceptions, are at their assigned anchorages in Hampton Roads. Six powerful battleships, with the Kearsarge flying the flag of Rear Admiral Barker, for the first column in the rendezvous. Stretched at quarter of a mile intervals behind the flagship are the Alabama, Kentucky, Illinois, Missouri and Iowa. The coast squadron, with Missouri and Iowa. The Coast Squadron with Rear Admiral Sands on the battleship Texas and the cruiser Tacoma and monitors Arkansas, Florida and Nevada, constitutes the second column. The cruiser Newark, flying the flag of Rear Admiral Sigbee, heads the Caribbean squadron in the third column, and a long line of dull-colored, rakish destroyers and torpedo craft, under command of Lieutenant-Commander Johnson, is anchored near Sewalls roads. The inspecting party will arrive from Washington on the Dolphin. The admiral and the Secretary of the Navy will probably visit each vessel in the big fleet, and then the Dolphin will steam out of the Roads and take a station off Cape Henry. According to the program now arranged, the combined squadrons will get under way at half past 1 o'clock in the afternoon and proceed in single column past the Dolphin from which Admiral Dewey and Secretary Morton will review them.

High winds and rough weather did not keep thousands of people from viewing the warships to-day. After the review, the warships will proceed to southern waters for winter maneuvering.
